Columbia, MD – May 8, 2015 – Williamsburg Homes continues its “Maryland’s Award Winning Builder” winning streak at the MAX 2014 Awards, having received five First Place honors for the 32nd consecutive year – an achievement unmatched among Maryland builders.

“It’s especially significant when your peers acknowledge your contribution to the residential new home market by selecting your homes as winners among a field of tough competition,” said Bruce Harvey, Williamsburg Homes’ president. “Our team consistently demonstrates an uncompromising commitment to designing and building homes that resonate with our buyers and that will be a joy to live in for generations. With awards in the $400,000 to $1 million range, we are exceeding the needs of our homebuyers in all price categories,” continued Harvey.

The MAX Awards program recognizes homebuilders in Maryland who provide buyers with excellence in design, livability and value in town homes and single-family homes.

The Williamsburg Homes’ team was a winner in the Best Single Family Detached Home category receiving awards for the “Ellicott II” model ($400,000 to $499,999 price point), the “Georgetown” model ($800,000 to $999,999 price point) and a custom residence, “The Wellington” in the $1 million and higher category. In addition, the builder took home awards in the Best Attached Home category for the “Dupont” model ($500,000 - $599,999 price level) and the “Woodley Park” model ($600,000 to $699,999 price level).

“Being ‘Maryland’s Award Winning Builder’ is more than just a slogan” said Tim Morris, executive vice president. “Our 32-year legacy of consistently designing and bringing to market award winning homes wouldn’t be possible without every level of our company combining their inspiration and passion to create truly extraordinary homes. Each and every year we propel ourselves to new heights.”

Williamsburg Homes is currently building communities throughout Howard and Anne Arundel Counties, with a community opening later this year in Montgomery County, Maryland.
